During a state of emergency, the mayor, or, in his/her absence or disability, the mayor pro tem shall have all the powers that would be vested in the council by state law to the extent he/she considers reasonable or necessary for the protection of persons or property.

Sec. 4.09. - Form of ordinances.

Every proposed ordinance shall be introduced in writing and in substantially the form required for final adoption. The subject of the ordinance shall be clearly expressed in its title. The enacting clause of every ordinance shall be: "Be it ordained by the City Council of the City of Manvel," but the same shall be omitted when the ordinances of the city are codified and published in a book or pamphlet form by the city. Any ordinance that repeals or amends an existing ordinance or part of the City Code shall clearly set forth the provision or provisions being repealed or amended and, if amended, shall further clearly set forth the amendment being made.

- (a) Ordinances and resolutions may be passed at any regular or special meeting called for that purpose provided notice has been given in accordance with the Texas Open Meetings Act.
- (b) All ordinances, except those defined in section 4.10(f), shall be considered and passed at two (2) separate council meetings. On second presentation, the council may consider and approve any changes it deems necessary from the ordinance presented at first reading, unless otherwise provided by state law.
- (c) The descriptive caption or title of an ordinance that imposes a penalty, fine or forfeiture and the penalty for violating the ordinance shall be published at least once in the official newspaper of the city.
- (d) An ordinance required to be published takes effect when the publication requirement is satisfied, unless the ordinance provides otherwise, and an ordinance that is not required to be published takes effect when adopted, unless the ordinance provides otherwise.

An emergency ordinance can be adopted with or without amendment or rejected at the meeting at which it is introduced. The affirmative vote of four (4) members of the council shall be required for adoption. After adoption, the ordinance shall be published as required for other adopted ordinances, but may become effective immediately upon enactment.

Sec. 4.12. - Codification of ordinances.

The city council shall cause all general ordinances of the city to be compiled and printed in code form. For the purpose of this section, general ordinances shall be deemed to be those ordinances of a permanent nature which affect the residents of the city at large. Every general ordinance enacted subsequent to the original codification required above shall be enacted as an amendment to the Code. When adopted by the city council, the printed codes of general ordinances contemplated by this section shall be known and cited officially as the "Manvel City Code" and shall be in full force and effect without the necessity of such Code or any part thereof being published in any newspaper, unless otherwise required by law. The caption, descriptive clause, and other formal parts of the ordinances of the city may be omitted without affecting the validity of such ordinances when they are published as a code. Copies of the Code shall be furnished to the city officers, placed in any city library for free reference, and made available for purchase by the public at a reasonable price.

Sec. 4.13. - Proof of ordinance.

An ordinance of the city may be proved prima facie by a printed code of ordinances purporting to be printed by authority of the city, or by a copy of the ordinance certified by the city secretary to be a true copy of the same, or by the city secretary's record thereof.

Sec. 7.09. - Results of election.

If a majority of the qualified voters vote in favor of a proposed initiative ordinance, it shall thereupon be an initiative ordinance of the city. A referred ordinance, which is not approved by a majority of the electors voting thereon, shall thereupon be deemed repealed. (Ord. No. 2017-O-06, 2-13-2017)

Sec. 10.19. - Submission of Charter to voters.

The Charter commission in preparing this Charter concludes that it is impracticable to segregate each subject so as to permit a vote of "yes" or "no" on the same, for the reason that the Charter is so constructed that in order to enable it to work and function it is necessary that it should be adopted in its entirety. For these reasons, the Charter commission directs that the said Charter be voted upon as a whole and that it shall be submitted to the qualified voters of the city at an election to be held for that purpose on May 14, 2011. Before the thirtieth (30th) day prior to such election, the council shall cause the city secretary to mail a copy of this Charter to each qualified voter of the city as appears from the latest certified list of registered voters. If a majority of the qualified voters voting in such election shall vote in favor of the adoption of this Charter, it shall immediately become the governing law of the city, until amended or repealed.
